UPS Returns® on the Web: Changing the Face of Online Retailing

One of the biggest drawbacks of shopping online is the lack of peace of mind. "What if it is not the product I expect?" "What if it is the wrong size?" And many other "what ifs".

Most online retailers do not have return policies because of the hassle. If this is one of the issues that limit your business growth, UPS has the right product for you.

With UPS Returns on the Web, you can now offer a return policy minus the inconvenience. Here's how it works:

Peace of mind goes both ways. To safeguard against customer abuse, customers cannot print return labels without your authorisation.

UPS Returns on the Web is good news for you and your customers! With an effective return policy and tracking control, you can increase customer satisfaction, reduce transportation cost and manage your inventories better.
